

Pricing & Agreement Worksheet

Name: ____ Date: ____

Service package (from Lesson 3): _____

Part 1: Pricing Calculator

Fill in your own estimate below. This is a starting estimate to help you think, not a fixed rule — your real price can change based on experience, your local market, and what feels fair to you and the client.

Step	Your Entry
Estimated hours to complete the job	_____ hours
Reference hourly rate (a reasonable beginner starting point, e.g. $10–$20/hour)	$_____ /hour
Calculation (hours × rate)	__ × $ = $__
Suggested price (rounded to a clean number)	$_____
Pricing method you'll actually quote the client (circle one)	Flat Rate / Hourly Rate

Filled Example — Jordan R.

Step	Jordan's Entry
Estimated hours to complete the job	4 hours
Reference hourly rate	$12/hour
Calculation	4 × $12 = $48
Suggested price (rounded)	$50
Pricing method to quote	Flat Rate

Note: This is a starting estimate, not a fixed rule — Jordan could quote more or less depending on experience and the client.

Part 2: Scope Boundary Checklist

Check off each item once you've clearly defined it. If you can't check a box, your scope isn't specific enough yet.

- ☐ I've listed exactly what deliverables the client will receive (e.g., number of files, file types).
- ☐ I've stated how many revision rounds are included.
- ☐ I've stated a delivery timeframe (a specific number of days).
- ☐ I've stated what is NOT included (e.g., "does not include printing" or "does not include more than 2 revisions").
- ☐ I've stated how the client should ask for changes if something is unclear.
- ☐ My scope line avoids vague words like "etc.," "and more," or "whatever you need."

Filled Example — Jordan R.'s Scope Checklist

- ☒ Deliverables listed: 2 flyer designs, delivered as PNG and PDF files.
- ☒ Revision rounds included: 1 round of revisions per flyer.
- ☒ Delivery timeframe: within 6 days of starting.
- ☒ Not included: does not include printing, does not include a 3rd flyer design.
- ☒ How to request changes: client sends notes by email within 2 days of receiving drafts.
- ☒ No vague language used.

Part 3: Simple Written Agreement (Educational Template)

IMPORTANT — READ FIRST: This is an educational agreement template for practicing clear scope communication. It is NOT a legally binding contract. Writing this down and signing it does not create legal obligations. A real legal contract depends on separate legal requirements (such as legal capacity/age of majority, consideration, and other rules that vary by country, state, or province) that are beyond the scope of this lesson. If you ever do real paid client work, involve a parent or guardian.

Final Check Before You Submit

- ☐ The disclaimer at the top of Part 3 is present and unedited.
- ☐ My scope line is specific, not vague.
- ☐ I can explain, in my own words, why this agreement is not the same as a legal contract.

- ☐ I understand that real paid client work should involve a parent or guardian.
